COMPANY INTRODUCTION

People for the work.

Experience behind the conversation.

Permanent recruitment and contract site labour for construction employers across England.

A practical, personal approach to recruitment, led by Veejay Perry and grounded in 20 years of hands-on plumbing experience on building sites.

01 / PERMANENT RECRUITMENT

Build your team.

For employers seeking people to become part of their business for the long term.

- Trade and site-based roles
- A brief shaped around the duties, experience and availability you need
- Recruitment fees and terms agreed in advance

02 / CONTRACT SITE LABOUR

Support your project.

Discuss labour requirements for a project phase, short-term need or longer assignment.

- Trade, location, hours and duration discussed
- Supply arrangements matched to your requirement
- Rates and responsibilities agreed before proceeding

20

YEARS ON THE TOOLS

After 20 years working as a plumber on building sites, I understand how much a project depends on people who know their trade and communicate clearly.

When you contact Perry Technical Recruitment, you deal directly with me. I will take time to understand your needs and explain the fees, terms and next steps before you commit.
